THE TIMES.
A. H. CLEMENT EDITOR
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 9, 1907.

IF POSSIBLE.

The Times-Dispatch and News-Leader would have the Democrats of the Nation "present a policy, and if possible, a leadership, to which the Democracy of the Union may rally unanimously and with enthusiasm and purpose." Why isn't it possible to do these practical, patriotic and sensible things, frame a platform and select a leader to which the Democracy of the Union may rally unanimously?" There is no need of an "if" as the thing is so plainly "possible".

We have tender sympathy for the treasurer of this great Government of ours who is struggling beneath the staggering load of an oppressive "surplus" Isn't there some enough in Congress to enact a law reducing taxes? And in this connection it would be well to remember that tariff is a tax, pure and simple, and that no unnecessary tax burden was ever a blessing to capitalist or laborer. We plain people of the land are often amazed at the want of common sense on the part of our statesmen (?)

The five-dollar-per-capita increase of money during the year 1906 did'nt strike this way. May be you felt the blow and if so and you failed to send in your last year's subscription the to TIMES, kindly do so at once; begin the new year with a clear conscience and four dollars to your credit. "Do it now" is a good motto for the New Year and is particularly applicable in the "case at bar."

The late President Spencer, of the Southern system of railroads was himself a southern man by birth and an ex-confederate, and the active pall bearers on the occasion of his funeral were all negroes. Was such a thing ever known at the funeral of a northern man? The north has a sentimental interest in the negro, while the south has a substantial in him. The one is shadow, the other substance.

Penrose and Foraker are "back numbers". President Roosevelt knows that some men are not worthy to wear the uniform or follow the flag. The Bible command to soldiers is, "be content with your wages and do violence to no man." The discharged soldiers were out laws in conduct and finds at heart.

The postmaster general, in his report to Congress, alludes to Virginia as one of the "progressive States in which rural route roads are being improved"; and why didn't he suggest that the National Government come to the assistance of the states in this all-important matter? The neglect is shameful in the extreme.

Uncle Sam could do no wiser business thing in these opening days of the New Year than offer his Philippine properties at auction to the highest bidder. If the property was simply non-productive, that would be bad enough, but it is a money grabber of most pronounced variety. Let the holdings go and go quick.

There are said to be "piping times of peace" and yet the railroads are waging a merciless war on human life. The list of dead and wounded has been frightfully added to during the recent past.

Richmond is "spreading herself." Happy the people who gather under her sheltering wing.

"No man is ever too busy to be polite," but some folks are never polite whether resting or working

Mr. Ben G. Boatright, of Danville, spent the holidays at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary G Boatwright.

Rev. Mr. Province held services at Woodland church on Sunday.

Mr. H. B. Taylor is home again after spending some time on business at Louisa C. H.

Mrs. A. P. Gilmer of Scottsville, spent several days at Cottag- Hill the home of her daughter Mrs. A. C. Horsley.

The Masons of Howardsville, gave a delightful smet supper on Saturday night last. Your correspondent had the pleasure of being there and can safely say there was a plenty to eat and a warm welcome for all.

Deer hunting has been the order of the day. Mr. Hall, of Warminster and Mr. C. S. Cunningham, of Clifton Forge, both had the pleasure of killing one.

Dr. S. R. Glover spent several days at Fountain Ridge, the home of the Misses Glover. We sincerely hope Dr. Sam may come home to stay at the end of the session.

Mr. Walter Simpson, of Washington, D. C., spent the holidays at his old home at Midway Mills.

Geo. W. Patteson Jr. of the V. P. I. spent the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patteson.

Miss Sallie Gantt has accepted a position in the hospital at Radford.

We regret very much to loose Miss Gantt.

Prof. Z. R. Lewis, of the V. P. I. spent the holidays at Fairfield, the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lewis.

We are glad to report at this writing that there is a slight improvement in the condition of Mrs. Sue Gibson.

There was a very enjoyable oyster supper given by the members of the Virginia lodge of Odd Fellows, at Midway, on Decem ser 22nd.

We wish the TIMES and its host of readers a happy and prosperous New Year.

Chronic Constipation Cured

One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. L. E. Smith, Appomattox. V. B. Hurtsville.

Mr. Editor: I greet you with good wishes.

Christmas passed off pleasantly and quietly in this section.

Mr. John D. Watkins of Farmville, spent the holidays in this section hunting.

A. L. Noel of Farmville, visited relatives in this neighborhood during holidays. He was accompanied by his brother Charlie.

Mrs. P. W. Coleman improves slowly. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Jesse Harvey, who lives 5 miles from here, is ill with the La grippe. His sister Miss Mary is suffering from a fall received a few days ago.

Ah! now Mr. Editor may you and every reader of the TIMES receive full share of blessings of 1907 while one more leaf in the great book of time has been turned over.

May we remember the lesson we've had and strive to do better in the futur;

May you prosper in the year 1907 as never before and may the TIMES live long and maintain the standard without a peer as a local newspaper is the earnest desire of the writer.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good." L. E. Smith, Appomattox. W. B. Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

Do you know that Rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of accounts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money; be sides the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "Foiled away" as when carried a ray in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books an we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.

New Year resolutions.

Mr. C. W. Beasley spent the holidays in our county.

Mr. John Goff has returned to the school at Blackstone.

Misses Gracie Cheatham and Ossie Agee are visiting in Roanoke.

Mrs. J. P. L. Fleshman is visiting her children in Bluefield.

Miss Estelle Kennard has returned from a visit to Roanoke.

Misses Edyth and Virgilia Attaway left for Hollins Monday.

Contractor W. M. Hancock has returned from a trip to Bluefield.

Mr. Henry Kidd, of Roanoke, who has been visiting here returned today.

Don't forget that our office is now over the depot, where we will always be glad to see you.

Our boys and girls have all left for their respective schools, and we "sadly miss them."

Mrs. C. V. Crumpbell, of Lynchburg, spent a few days at the home of her father here, Mr. T. H. Hinton, this week.

L. A. Bagby will offer for sale at the home near Rose Bower on January 26th his household goods, mining implements &c.

Misses Hester Babcock and Mary Lee left this week for Blackstone institute and Thos. Babcock and son Ed Sears for V. P. I.

An old Buckingham boy renewing his subscription from a distant state, writes: "Don't fail to send my paper every week as I am lost without it. Success to you."

There will be services at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock in the morning and at Evergreen Presbyterian church at 7 p. m. by the pastor Rev. S. K. Winn

Friends of Miss Mattie Caldwell will be glad to know that she has recovered sufficiently to be brought home Miss Mattie has been ill with typhoid fever at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joe O'Brien, in Lynchburg.

On Thursday afternoon at half past three o'clock there will be held at the residence of Mr E. W. Taylor a meeting of all those interested for the purpose of arranging a series of entertainments for the benefit of the Appomattox Athletic Association. As every person in the community will be benefitted by the Association, either directly or indirectly, a large and representative attendance is urged. Please come and give us the benefit of your ideas as well as your help to make this a success.

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

We will send you a sample free.
Be sure this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

At the November meeting of the Board of Supervisors the sum of $400 was appropriated to help build a county line bridge over Falling at Spring Mills. Judge Frank Nelson of Campbell appeared before the board.

At the meeting of the Board held on the 2nd inst. two additional road machines were ordered at a cost not to exceed $275. This will make a machine for each district in the county.

The Board will meet hereafter on the Wednesday after the first Monday in each month.

The big closing out sale at D. W. Myers is still in progress. You can't afford to miss it. His new fall stock is being opened up daily and is sold at cost. The reason for doing this is Mr. Myers is going to retire from the clothing business and is making prices to move the stock. They will not last long at the prices he is putting on the entire stock. The time to buy is now. The place is D. W. Myers, 828 Main Street, Lynchburg, Va. The reason is prices are at and below cost. Goods marked in plain figures.

Bent Creek.

The Christmas holidays passed off very quietly, in this section. There was only one ball given that the writer heard of and that was at the old Ferney home, in Buckingham Everything passed off pleasantly for those present.

There is right much sickness in the community. Dr. Watts is kept busy night and day.

Mrs. John Burks is thought to be improving, we wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Mary A. Dixon continues quite sick.

Mr. H. C. Doss and family are sick.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, and Miss Tempie Wells, of Lynchburg, spent Christmas week with parents here.

Richard Phelps of Newport News spent the holidays with his sister, Mrs. Alonza Wells.

Mrs. Nannie Turner, of Lynchburg, was to see her home people Christmas.

Wyatt Gunter has accepted a position in Lynchburg. The farm has so few attractions that most of our young men leave as soon as they are grown.

Stonewall.

The old year with its joy and sorrow has passed into oblivion.

Let us not be discouraged with failures, but strive to reach a higher standard in life and do some good to the unfortunate about us.

Our first Christmas day it was my pleasure to attend a Sunday school Xmas tree at Bethel church. There was a large crowd present and everything passed off pleasantly. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreen and bright and shining stars. The march was perfect, the singing good and recitations splendid. The "Star Drill" and "Following the Star" deserve special mention, Santa was great. The exercises were creditable to all and much enjoyed by the large audience present.

On Thursday there was a very pretty Christmas tree at Hebron, which was much enjoyed—the confections were plentiful and the music superb.

Mr. Robt. Crews of Clifton Forge spent the holidays with his sister, Mrs. J. P. Grow. Abner Grow went back with him and accepted work there.

John D. Taylor of Richmond visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Taylor Christmas.

Lester Sears and his sister Mrs. Marshall were the guests of Mrs. W. S. Taylor Christmas.

Dr. Whitehead is busy.

It is said that Miss Mabel Carson, Mrs. Bernard Chick, Miss Lizzie Thornhill, and two of Mr. Lewis Woodson's children have pneumonia. This weather suggests "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Mrs. A. Hickman who has been very sick for several weeks is reported better. It is hoped this estimable lady will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Moore of Suffolk who visited his aunt Mrs. J. W. Carson Xmas. have returned to the city.

Mrs. Oden Stanley visited relatives near Harrisonburg Christmas week.

New Year's greeting to the TIMES and readers.

MARRIED.

MARTIN—PURDUM.

There was a quiet, but a very pretty marriage in the parlor of the Carroll hotel, Lynchburg, Va., on Jan. 4th 1907, when Miss Lena Purdum, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. J. F. Purdum of this county, became the bride of Mr. David A. Martin of Pittsburgh, Penn.

The bride was beautifully attired in a brown tailor-made suit, while the groom wore the conventional black. The ceremony was impressively performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. W. L. Murphy of Appomattox. After the marriage supper was served and then Mr. and Mrs. Martin took the Southern train for Pittsburgh, Pa.

MARSHALL—CHEATHAM.

Mr. Travis T. Marshall and Miss Sarah C. Cheatham were married at the bride's home near the village this morning at 11 o'clock by Rev Geo. Kennard. The parlor was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and quite a crowd of the friends of the contracting parties was present. After the ceremony the entire party was served to an elegant dinner. The happy pair left for their home in Portsmouth, Ohio, where the groom holds a position with the N & W. Ry. Co.

Spring Mills.

One of the most interesting of the social gatherings which the young people of Spring Mills enjoyed during the holidays was a party given on Tuesday evening Dec. 25th at the home of Mrs. L. S. Harvey by Miss Mary Harvey. The very spirit of the season was in the air, mirth and jollity prevailing throughout the evening. Music and games sped the merry hours, while pleasant retreats were made at different points about the hall and parlor where the young men and young women might discuss Art, talk Philosophy, pass comments on the weather or sit in silence and look "unutterable things." The dispensing of delicious refreshments in tempting style was the finale of the pleasant event.

Another social feature of Christmas week was the house party given by Misses Lizzie and Nannie Sue Evans at the hospitable home in honor of Misses Bessie Evans, Bluefield, W. Va., Sussie Callahan, Richmond, and Copeland Smith, Lynchburg. Among those in attendance were Messrs. Percy Hancock, Ray Evans, Bluefield, W. Va., Taylor Hawkins, Richmond, H. G. Smith and Sam Poindexter, Lynchburg; S. G. Evans, V. P. I. and H. G. Evans, Richmond.

John W. Harvey and W. F. Jones spent a few days of Christmas with their parents.

D. W. Wood, Norton, and J. G Wood, Lynchburg, left Sunday for their places of business after spending the holidays with parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Pugh spent the holidays with Mrs. J. J. Wood.

Mr. R. W. Cardwell, of Roanoke, spent Sunday with his grandmother, Mrs. L. S. Harvey.

Master Robert Wood who is attending school in Lynchburg returned last week after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wood.

Misses Kate, Willie and Reva Cardwell have returned to their schools after a pleasant Christmas at home.

Rev. Michaux Rame pastor of New Concord group of churches has resigned to accept the pastorate of the presbyterian church at Norton, Va. During his residence here he won the hearts and esteem of all with whom he come in contact.

We are glad to welcome Mrs. Peet hom after spending a pleasant Christmas with friends in Nelson, Amherst and Lynchburg.

Appomattox High School.

Below will be found the Honor Roll of our school for month No 3 ending Dec. 21. A word of explanation may be necessary.

This Honor Roll will be prepared and published hereafter, at the end of each month, for the purpose of encouraging students to be punctual in attendance, to attain high marks in their classes, etc.

In order for a student to get his name on the said Honor Roll, it will be necessary for him to be present every school day in the school month, not tardy a single time, and attain a general average of 85 per cent in class standing and deportment.

By all means should parents insist that their children should have their names on the Honor Roll every month.
